"Alcoholism Made Easy or Every Man His Own Bartender," should be the title of a book which H. Charles Obendaugh of Binghampton, N. Y., may issue. A telegream from Binghampton is authority for the statement that Mr. Obendaugh is the inventor of the very latest thing in the cellet line. He is said to have invented a whicky pill. It is not a pill for the cure of the druckerd while he sleeps, or at any other time. On the contrary, it is designed to allow gentlemen to earry drinks in their rest pockets and swallow them when-ver the spirit moves. "By a process of distillation and compression," says Mr. Odendaugh, "the finest brand of whicky can be compressed and carried like pills. The discovery will be a startling one to the distillery.

A STRONG MARKET FOR ALL METALS

A Noted Authority on Ore Smallpox Prisoner Who Es

STUFF PERSONAL AND GENERAL THE PROSPECTS GOOD

Simon Guggenheim, chairman of the executive committee of the boar of directors of the American Smelting and refining company, looks for a stronger metal market. He says "I believe the coming twelve months will see a great improvement in the market price demanded for all the metals. The outlook for silver I think, has improved because the prospect of passing the Philippine co mage bill is good. The measurwill provide a new market for the metal and will, I think materially effect the price. The lead situation is more reseate. This is caused by the prosperity all over the country. The farmers are painting their bouses and that means a consumption of an immediate amount of lead used in making white lead. Then the great amount of emetruction taking place will require a great amount of lead pipe."
